Vegetable Acreage Up From Last Year In Glades Area

Sweet corn acreage planted in the Everglades this season (Aug. 1 thru Dec. 12) exceeds last year's figure by 1500 acres, according to Florida Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

A total of 12,550 acres are in sweet corn in the area as compared to last year's 11,050.

Planting of sweet corn got off to a slower start this year, but increased intensively from September 5, thru October 10, and since has remained comparatively steady.

Celery for the same period here shows increased acreage from 215 to 225. A slight decrease — 5 acres — is reported for the Central part of the state, and Sarasota area shows the same as planted — 230 acres.

Acreage for celery harvest is estimated at 6,800 acres this crop year, up 100 acres from last year. Cutting of the winter crop began the first week of November in the Everglades and Zellwood areas. Harvest was completed in the Zellwood area November 27, but continues active here. Quality is improving and sizes are getting better.

American Capitalism At Work With The Farmer

$27 Million In Sugar Loans Interest Officials

Bankers have become more human, and competition has practically eliminated the "fish-eye" atmosphere confronting a farmer applicant of older days.

Farmer-bankers — the Farm Credit Administration — representing Boards of Directors from the twelve Regional Banks in the United States, and individuals from every state in the Union, except Alaska and Hawaii, visited the Glades Wednesday, with Pioneer Growers and the Glades Sugar House as particular points of interest.

Bob Lee masterminded a feed at the Belle Glade Country Club with the Columbia Bank as host to the more than 100 delegates and wives.

The Bank Act, the child of Congressman A. F. Lever of South Carolina and U.S. Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, has grown into the present Farm Credit Administration, which offers credit to Cooperatives, and to individual farmers, as well as long-term land financing.

Pioneer Growers, a group of Belle Glade farmers if not the first, was among the first to benefit by the financing of cooperatives in this area.

Okeelanta was the first — Puerto Ricans — to take advantage of the Bank for Cooperatives in sugar production. The Glades Sugar House is the largest borrower for sugar production from this group.

There are other cooperatives in the Glades enjoying financing by the Bank for Cooperatives at Columbia. Many farmers have crop and equipment loans from the Miami Farmers PCA.

This modern conception was emphasized in the group of bankers who visited the Glades Thursday.

Some of the group, while in Florida, visited the A. DuBois and Sons operations in the Glades. Glades Cooperatives and other Florida Co-ops were among the 100% pure cooperatives operating in the United States, qualifying under the intent of the Act creating them.

SELF-HELP — NOT GIVE-AWAY! Two organizations sponsored by federal funds are ideally representative of self-help — the Federal Housing Administration in furnishing a way of financing homes for folks and the Farm Credit Administration for the benefit of farmers.

The FHA has followed bureaucratic and political manipulations to the point where a reserve fund is dwindling. Before that the operation paid its own way and built up a substantial reserve, with Uncle not paying a cent of the taxpayer's money.

The agencies of the Farm Credit Administration, in many individual areas, is entirely owned by the farmers without debt to the U.S. treasury; all are fast arriving at that stage.

These agencies are farmer-owned (the some borrowed capital) and farmer operated, FOR farmers.

The independence of the farmer is maintained through his own money and efforts.

PCA is a demonstration of governmental GUIDANCE NOT DICTATION — a lesson strongly recommended to our own State Department and other give-away bureaucrats.

Will Close At Noon Xmas & NY Eve day

Everglades Federal Savings & Loan Association will close at noon on December 23, for posting dividends and will be paying out until noon on December 31.

There's been a terrific amount of activity in the Glades and we've enjoyed the busiest year we've ever had," Mr. Poston said.

George Wedgworth (center) and Charlie Long, Vice President and Manager, respectively of the Miami PCA, with (l-r) D. M. Dowdell, President of the Federal Land Bank, Chappel Moore, Vice President of Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, and (extreme right) Robt. H. McDougal, President of the Bank for Cooperatives, Columbia, S. C.

The three branches of the FCA in Columbia have some $27 million loaned in the Cane Industry in Florida.

W. H. Busby, President and E. A. McCabe, Executive Vice President of Pioneer Growers Co-operative experience of borrower, with Robt. H. McDougal, Pres. of Bank for Cooperatives. Banker with great satisfaction to both. As one of the first, if not the first, Co-op in the Glades to take advantage of facilities of the Bank for Cooperatives, Pioneer has a "clear slate" with the Bank. IN PAID IN FULL. Mortgage.

"How To Prevent School Drop-Outs" Topic For County PTA Workshop

Herman Glose, principal of Belle Glade Junior High School was one of a panel of four who discussed school drop-outs at a meeting of the County PTA held in West Palm Beach Tuesday afternoon.

Also attending from the Glades were Mrs. Richard Murray, second vice-president of the County Council, PTA, and Mrs. Floyd Wilder, South Bay, who is High School chairman of the County Council level.

Moderating the panel was Mrs. Sybil Griffin, Child Labor Consultant for Florida Industrial Commission. Dr. Britton Sayles, President of Roosevelt Junior College, Clyde Harris, Assistant Supt. of the Board of Public Instruction, and Mr. Glose.

Discussion centered around causes and reasons for so many leaving school in these early years, and what can be done to prevent this.

In a statistical report, Harris said 463 high school students in Palm Beach County quit school last year. Of this number, 64 quit to get married; only one student dropped out because he HAD to work. Reports indicate a large number of the students who quit school blame the teachers.

It was emphasized that every one of these children have the ability to learn, but their attitudes and values may differ considerably from the average student. Emotional upsets are often a strong contributing factor toward school drop-outs, and this should be understood by the teachers. "They (the teachers) need to understand the emotional problems of these children and learn to accept every child on his own merits and worth," Pres. Bayles Sayles pointed out.

Discussion pointed out that children learn more in the first three years of life than during any other period; from then on they are most influenced by experiences they encounter.

Junior Hi Glee Club Entertains At Lions Meeting

Members of the Lions Club were entertained at their regular weekly meeting, on Wednesday, by the newly formed Junior High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Janis Schwab. This was their first public performance.

The group learns their songs, entirely without the accompaniment of a piano, learning the tune by listening to Miss Schwab, and then singing themselves.

Their program of Christmas Music was a very inspiring one, a Lions member said.

Every child needs recognition for his accomplishments and encouragement for any measure of success.

One of the great problems confronting drop-outs is that parents' ambition for their child often exceeds his own ability, or differs entirely from his desires, the panel brought out. Ninety percent of those who quit school are not old enough to go to work, and have not learned how to get along with people. A great need exists for more schools teaching trades, and more appreciation of parents and teachers for this type of work. Many of our drop-out problems could be solved if this need were met and those students allowed to work with their hands while studying related subjects, the group brought out.

Be critical, but above all be concerned and give praise where praise is due," Dr. Britton Sayles emphasized.

Mobile X-Ray Unit In Pahokee Area; Here Next Month

Mrs. Julia Hampton, Glades supervisor of the Public Health Department, announced the Palm Beach County Tuberculosis X-ray Unit, which is scheduled in the Glades next week in the Pahokee area.

The first stop Monday, 100 people turned out for X-ray at Sandcut, she said.

The Mobile X-ray Unit will be at the State Farmers' Market in Pahokee from 2-4 p. m., and at the Canal Point & Silver City area at Connel's Grocery from 5-9 p. m. on Friday, December 18, at A & P Grocery from 9-9 p. m., and on Saturday, Dec. 19, from 1-6 p. m. at the Bank of Pahokee.

The Glades schedule will continue in the Pahokee area through January and the first week in February. Mrs. Hampton said.

She Lives 4 Miles From Bann City — And She's A Winner

"It took a country girl to do it!" Many Mamas — some 80 or 90 — of candidates for the title of Miss Junior Orange Bowl Queen, have been given a jolt for they dressed, polished, coiffed and mounted their little darlings on still-like pedal cars in the latest grown-up styles. TO LITTLE ALASKA, as far as the contest was concerned.

An unpolished youngster from Belle Glade, only four miles from Bann City, natural in her ownness and reactions for a young lady of her age, just walked off with the contest.

June and Katherine Harris are walking on air, and will be until all the festivities accompanying the Orange Bowl parade, regattas, socials and contests are over in mid-January.

What parent wouldn't be WALKING ON AIR?

Congratulations to Miss June Harris, and to her father and mother, and the two other Harris girls! We're proud of you.

Some 80 contestants from southeast Florida vied with each other to become Junior Orange Bowl Queen, to reign over the Junior Orange Bowl Festival, Dec. 26-30 in Coral Gables, ride a float and become the center of all eyes at the Annual Youth Ball.

June is 13 and is an eighth grader in Belle Glade's Junior High School.

June won in preliminaries in Belle Glade, and remained standing in Coral Gables after three cuts of 17 out of the 87, and finally came out TOPS.

Two Miami Misses were selected to be her attendants.

In the questioning by the judges as to hobbies and interests June added to the eye-catching physical attraction, with her typical 13-year-old answer: "I like to ride horseback and love water skiing."

The notched tooth, explained by June as a "fall from my bike," emphasized the "typical 13-year-old Florida girl."

To those who want to know

"Where is Belle Glade? we say: Find Lake Okechobee; at its extreme south end you will see South Bay; move the finger westward along U. S. No. 27, and you'll find Bann City; come back thru South Bay and follow the southerly shore of Lake Okechobee, and there you'll find Belle Glade, "the sweetest community in Florida" and "the winter garden for eastern United States."

Shame on you for not knowing where $100 million in sugar and vegetables are produced annually!

US No. 27 Passes THRU Small Counties

At the Friday meeting of the Sounding Board of Lake Wales "Boosters of Highway 27" organization was formed for the Greater Lake Wales area.

Guest speaker at the Sounding-Board luncheon was Ken Cutie, President and General Manager of The Great Masterpiece. His talk was on the Interstate and Turnpike roads of Florida, their development and their effect on the tourist business throughout the state. A series of maps showing the first stages of the turnpike to its present day connection with I-75 and how the state of Florida will look when all the proposed interstate roads are completed was shown and discussed in great detail.

Due to the tactics used by the State Turnpike Authority and the State Road Department, Curtis predicted a 50 percent drop in tourists for Central Florida and Holiday Highlands during the coming winter season.

Some of the major reasons for this less tourist outlook were as follows:

Using unfair practices in advertising the turnpike and throughway systems with signs on state right-of-way unavailable for use by anyone else.

In addition to these many services, the Salvation Army this year has undertaken the operation of the Wee Cote Day Center for Migrant children at Belle Glade, which cares for 100 children each day.

Cards have already been mailed out to deserving families asking them to call at the First Station to select the toy or gift for their child for Christmas, the Major said.

Willing And Qualified workers Short

Florida agriculture's number one problem is the increasing shortage of willing and qualified farm workers, according to Florida Farm Bureau Federation.

T. K. McClane, Jr., FFBF executive vice president, told a labor hearing in Miami last week the myth of an adequate domestic farm labor, he emphasized.

McClane, speaking on behalf of the 33,000 Farm Bureau members in Florida who produce approximately 90 percent of the state's total agricultural production, said the problem is especially critical at harvest time.

The Farm Bureau spokesman was one of several agricultural leaders appearing before the Bureau of Employment Security hearing called by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

McClane stated that the existing and time-proven criteria relating to the availability of farm labor on such matters as wages, housing, insurance, transportation expenses and other terms and conditions of adequate to determine the number of farm workers available from local and interstate sources.

Farm Bureau has strongly discouraged any action which would accelerate the trend toward rising farm production costs.

The state's largest farm organization has also urged continuation of the effect of any change, particularly in wages on accelerated production in the Caribbean area and in South and Central America.

In his testimony, McClane also supported statements along these lines which have been made by the American Farm Bureau Federation and the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association.

Cong. Paul Rogers Ranks 166 of 435 In 89th Congress

Congressman Paul G. Rogers advanced to a seniority position of 166 among the 435 members of the U. S. House of Representatives for the 89th Congress, according to an unofficial list compiled by the Capitol Hill newspaper, ROLL CALL.

At the beginning of the 89th Congress, Rogers ranked 224. Seniority is based on continuous length of service. Congressman Rogers was first elected on January 11, 1955, to the 84th Congress, and has been re-elected to the 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th and 89th Congresses.

The new Congress will meet on January 6th, for all Members to take the Oath of Office and elect House officials. Committee assignments will be made within the first few weeks.

Congressman Rogers was a member of both the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee and the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee during the last Congress.

ling larger as the season progresses.

Volume will continue to increase as more growers begin harvesting. Transplanting is active here and in the Sarasota and Sanford-Oviedo areas.

Escarole growers will plant 7,600 acres to escarole and chrysanthemum this year compared to 7,500 acres planted last year.

Volume lagged in November primarily because of earlier hurricane damage in the Glades. A considerable acreage was lost here and had to be replanted. Volume is expected to increase seasonally. The Glade normally furnishes approximately 50 percent of the total volume for the state.

Quality of lettuce plants near maturity was improved by recent cool weather. Shipments from this area have been light but continue to increase. Plantings continue here on schedules.

Harold Green Is Arrested In Jewelry Store Robbery Here

Harold Green, age 30, of 324 S. W. 6th Street, Belle Glade, surrendered himself to Wilmington, North Carolina, city police, and has confessed to the robbery of the Belle Glade Jewelry Store, Sunday night. He was stopped in Wilmington, driving an auto stolen from the parking lot of an auto dealer.

He jumped from the vehicle and ran; later surrendering to the Police, and is being held in Hanover County jail.

Deputy Police Chief D. Bill Mathis, stated it has been learned that a tray of rings, men's watches and other items of jewelry, were found in the abandoned auto.

An account of the break-in is as follows:

The Belle Glade Jewelry Store, 117 SW Avenue A, was broken into Sunday night. Owner E. F. Weathers, City Commissioner, stated that an unestimated amount of jewelry and gift items were taken.

According to Sgt. Wilbur Huggins, of the Belle Glade Police Department, entry was gained through three doors in the rear of the building. A glass was broken on one of the doors, a screen cut on another, and hinges removed from the third, later being replaced. He also stated that apparently the thieves were not familiar with the value of jewelry items on display in the looted showcase.

Among the items taken were watches, rings, billfolds, bracelets, as was a television set. It was not immediately known the estimate of all items taken.

Assisting in the investigation was Patrolman M. J. Spooner and department identification officer, Sgt. Joseph Kardel.

Sugarcane League Being Organized

An organization of all Florida Sugarcane Growers is in the making, with definite steps for a complete setup on Thursday, December 17th today, in Clewiston at the Sugarland Auditorium.

Guy Scarborough Buried In Dublin, Georgia Saturday

Deterrants to Christmas joy have come double during the past weeks for Mr. and Mrs. George Scarborough and their family.

On Saturday, their store on Avenue A was closed due to the death of Mr. Scarborough's oldest brother, Guy Scarborough, who died Friday night in a Dublin, Georgia hospital after a long illness.

The Scarboroughs were unable to attend the funeral services. They had just returned home Tuesday night from attending the funeral of a young relative, Ned Marlow, 40, who died suddenly of a heart attack. The young man had spent many hours daily at the bedside of his father-in-law, Guy Scarborough, and the unexpected death came as a shock to all the family.

Dot and George Scarborough have made numerous trips to Georgia to bury their son-in-law. They will be in the state for several days, and will be in the state for several days, and will be in the state for several days.

The warm sympathy of their many friends is with them in their loss. The brother, Guy, was a frequent visitor here in earlier years.

"In 1935, we had 100 phones in the Glades," said Mr. Denton, "and by 1950, we expected to have 6,850. Dividing the time into two periods 1950-55 and 1955-60, we have comparative figures showing a gain to 2,400 phones. The next five-year period ending January 1st is expected to reach 1,750. We anticipate an equal addition during the 65-70 period to make a grand total in the Glades of 6,850 phones."

Mr. Denton attributed the most recent growth to the sugarcane plantings, and feels that the community in the coming five years will "even up" the complementary growth and development to need the additional phones. The 350 average annual growth predicted is not based on anticipated population growth equal to the past five years.

The proposed organization is an industry group that will have its hand full looking after its own problems.

It behooves every cane-grower to join in this effort to protect and aid the sugar production in the state.

GLADES CHURCH NEWS.....

Junior Dept. Of First Baptist Stages Annual Christmas Program

Junior Department 1 of the First Baptist Church gave its annual Christmas program and open house in their department, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 13th, at 3:30 p. m.

First Baptist Annual Cantata Sunday, Dec. 20

The Music Department of the First Baptist Church, 17 N. W. Avenue B, will present "Love Transcending," a Cantata of the greatest story of the ages, by John W. Peterson, on Sunday night, December 20th at 8:00 o'clock. The Cantata will be sung by the Concord, Chapel and Sanctuary Choirs under the direction of Mr. W. H. Ferguson, Interim Minister of Ganito.

Music, accompanied by Mrs. William A. Thibodeau at the organ and Mrs. John L. Youngblood at the piano. The narration will be by Mr. Ronald Jones. Soloists presenting the highlights of the Cantata will be Dr. W. T. Forsee, Tenor, Mrs. J. E. McKinley, Alto, Mrs. Wayne Mikell, Soprano, Mrs. Wilford Markham, Alto, Mr. Robert Bishley, Tenor and Mrs. James Snow, Alto.

Mr. Peterson, composer of the Cantata, states "It was God's great love for a sinful and doomed world that caused God to conceive and then enact a Bethlehem and finally a Calvary. As I prayerfully considered the meaningful words of John 3:16, 'For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life.' The music for the main theme began to form in my heart. Before long I was putting the notes down on paper. Using the great words from the Gospel of John 1:1-4 as a backdrop to the actual story, I have tried story, I have tried to conclude with the great angelic announcement of 'Peace on earth, good will to men.'"

As once again we come to consider the manger and view the Babe of Bethlehem lying there, may everyone fully realize that we are looking at God himself... clothed in mortal flesh. May every heart, as never before, be gripped with the unconquerable wonder of the incarnation of the "Love Transcending" back of it all.

A Thought From The Bible

By Lewis Llewellyn

"From the days of your fathers ye are gone away from Mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto Me, and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of hosts."

Students at a high school in Virginia have adopted a practice of asking God's blessing on their food when eating in the school lunch room. The practice is said to have been initiated by students, through the student council of the school with students voluntarily taking part in "saying grace" before meals.

This shows a commendable attitude on the part of the students of W. T. Woodson High School in Fairfax County, Virginia, an attitude that should be encouraged.

But the American Civil Liberties Union has challenged the right of the students to thank God for His blessings while they are on school property.

What the Supreme Court will do with this case, if and when that august body is asked to rule on the issue, we cannot say.

However, Farris Bryant, governor of Florida, expressed the opinion of many American citizens when he said, "The right and privilege of the majority to acknowledge God is at least equal to the right and privilege of the minority to deny Him."

Since the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States provides that Congress shall make no law prohibiting the free exercise of religion, it seems to be a valid conclusion that the Supreme Court also should not take any action to prohibit the free exercise of religion in this country.

Perhaps if there were more reverence for God in this nation, we would have less juvenile delinquency, less scandal in high places, less dishonesty in public and private life. Perhaps if we as a nation submitted ourselves to the guidance of God we could find the way to control our actions in

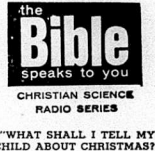

Methodist Church Dec. 20 Christmas Story In Pageant-And Song

A special Christmas program will be presented at Community Methodist Church on Sunday evening, December 20, at 7:30 o'clock. The age-old yet ever-sweet Christmas story will be presented in pageant and song by the children and young people of the church.

Children from the kindergarten class through the 6th grade will present special musical service.

lections, and the members of the Junior and Senior High Departments will make the beautiful old story live again in the pageant.

After the program the Woman's Society of Christian Service invites everyone to join in a social time in the parlor. Everyone is invited to attend this special inspirational service.

"WHAT SHALL I TELL MY CHILD ABOUT CHRISTMAS?"

Cathy loves to answer the phone, even though the calls aren't for her.

You can imagine how thrilling this moment was. There was really a call for Cathy.

We watched her shining smile... and listened to her shy, awkward replies.

"That was Miss Ferring," she informed us with a slight air of sophistication.

"And who in the world is Miss Ferring?" we asked.

"Oh, she's my Sunday School teacher. I thought you knew."

A dedicated Christian volunteer was devoting her time and talents to the religious growth of our Cathy—and we didn't even know her name!

We'll remember that call. It brought us to our senses—and to our Church!

Activities of Girl Scout Troops

Investitures of Courts of Awards, Christmas Projects, and now this week Christmas parties have been the principal activities of the Browne and Junior Girl Scout troops in Belle Glade the last few weeks.

BROWNE TROOP 207—Browne Scout Troop No. 207, whose leaders are Mrs. Lou Spink and Mrs. Bobbie Whitlock, recently invested 18 new girls. Mrs. Spink also invested Mrs. Whitlock who is a new leader this year, and recognized for completion of their year's membership was presented to the three girls in this troop who were members last year. A Browne color scheme was carried out in their decorations for the ceremony to which their mothers were invited.

These girls have also been working hard to perfect their flag ceremonies. Last week they made Christmas candles and cards and after the Christmas holidays plan to do more in the way of outdoor activities and hope to have a special major project for each month.

This week they had their Christmas party on Tuesday afternoon with a gift exchange.

BROWNE TROOP 541—Browne Troop No. 541 meets on Thursday afternoons with games, singing carols, etc. They had a Christmas tree and concluded with holiday refreshments.

BROWNE TROOP 237—Browne Troop No. 237 meets on Wednesday afternoon with their leaders, Mrs. Frances Miner and Mrs. Mabel Wagner. In their recent investiture, Mrs. Mendel Luce who has been active in Girl Scouting in the community for several years was present to invest the leaders, Mrs. Miner then invested the girls.

They have been making Christmas wreaths of tissue for the last two meetings and there will be for decoration in their homes. Wednesday they had their Christmas party and each girl brought a Christmas ornament with which they decorated their tree before they had their party. A gift exchange, games, singing carols and enjoying refreshments completed their program and they will now recess until school opens in January as all the other troops are doing.

BROWNE TROOP 541—Browne Troop No. 541 meets on Thursday afternoons with Mrs. Barbara Markham and Mrs. Lynette Thompson. Last week they had their investiture with Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Lou Spink, leader of Troop 207 conducting the ceremony.

Twenty new girls were invested at this time. The ceremony followed a dramatization of the Browne story, and the girls repeated their Browne promise. Several mothers were present, and after the ceremony punch and cookies were served to both mothers and girls.

They are planning to have their Christmas party this afternoon using a tree decorated with decorations made by the girls. They, too will have a gift exchange, play games, sing carols and have refreshments.

When they return to school after the holidays, they plan to work on outdoor activities and flag ceremonies during the early part of the year.

JUNIOR TROOP NO. 41—Junior Troop No. 41 held a Court of Awards on December 4 with the parents invited to attend. The girls put on a skit as a part of the program, and one of the leaders, Mrs. Marjorie Holt presented the badges which had been earned as well as Girl Scout and World Association pins. Mrs. Nancy Smith and Mrs. Nancy Creech are also co-leaders of this troop.

On December 10 the girls elected Mary Tenet, Jessie Livingston, Jennie Smith and Becky Smith as their patrol leaders.

On December 23 they plan to go Christmas caroling and afterward to return to the Episcopal Church where they meet regularly to have a Christmas party.

Some of the girls are working on their skating badge, assisted by Mrs. Pat Davidson.

JUNIOR TROOP 62—Junior Troop No. 62 whose leaders are Mrs. Shirley Lyman and Mrs. Marge Bugliome also recently had their investiture. Mrs. Eleanor Wolf, a member of the Council Board of Directors, invested the leaders, who then invested Judy Davidson, Adela Porro and Andrea Molin, the three new girls in the troop which now numbers 17.

At their first meeting in December, they started a sewing project, preparing their sewing boxes and getting all their equipment together. This will continue after the holidays and will be an activity for several weeks. Also after the holidays, they hope to start work on cooking badges through the courtesy of the Florida Power and Light Co., home economist, and later they want to work on 1-61 gypsy and health aide badges.

Last week the patrol leaders, Carmen Ramos and Pat Davidson were installed. The girls also learned a folk dance and made plans to go to the Seagrass.

This afternoon they are having their Christmas party with a gift exchange. They will also make and decorate a styrofoam Christmas tree. Saturday they plan with parents helping as chaperones and in providing transportation to leave early with a picnic lunch and go to the Miami Seagrass for the day.

JUNIOR TROOP 281—Junior Troop No. 281, whose leaders are Mrs. Anna Mae Chapman and Mrs. Frances Cove held their investiture the early part of this month when 6 new girls were invested into Girl Scouting. Several of the mothers were present for this ceremony. Last week they made Christmas decorations for their home using poster board and a great variety of other things and turned out some really creative work. Their Christmas party, which also includes a gift exchange is this afternoon. Games, carols, refreshments and a general Girl Scout good time is planned.

After the holidays they plan to start on some serious work toward proficiency badges. This troop now numbers 25 girls. Cadette Troops No. 264 and 133 are also busy with their Christmas and other activities, and report their activities directly so they are not included here.

Midnight Mass At St. John's Episcopal Church

St. John's Episcopal Church will again this year be the scene of the traditional rites of Christmas Eve, the Midnight Mass.

The festivities will begin at 11:30 P. M. on Christmas Eve with the lighting of the white "Christ Candle of the Advent Wreath, the Solemn Procession by the lighting of the Cerebe of the Nativity with the Christ-child; processional Christmas Carols, the Christ-Mass, or Feast of the Nativity, the Parish Communion, concluding with traditional Christmas Carols.

Fr. Loring will be the celebrant of the Holy Eucharist. Mr. Tom Chappell will sing the Christmas Epistle, Mrs. E. M. Lively directing the choir, with Miss Marge Townsend as organist. The public is most cordially invited to attend the parish's celebration of the Nativity of Christ; and service books to follow the Christmas Mass will be in the pews for those who are unfamiliar with the Episcopal Church's order of Service.

The Church will be decorated especially for the festivities, with standing lighted candles down both side aisles, the traditional creche or Nativity scene with the figures of the same, to receive the procession of the Christ-child, with holly and evergreens appropriately mounted through the Church marking this as one of the major times of the Christian year, a time of true rejoicing for the greatest Gift God has given us.

Cantata Will Be Presented By The Elem. Schools

A cantata, entitled "Let There Be Peace On Earth," will be presented by the Belle Glade Elementary and Gove Elementary Schools, on the following days: Gove Elementary, December 17, 1:10 p. m., in the Gove cafeteria; Belle Glade Elementary, December 18, 9:30 a. m., in the Belle Glade High School gymnasium. Beta Sigma Phi Christmas Party Set At Country Club Saturday

Xi Beta Gamma Chapter met at the home of Mrs. Hector Ouellette on Thursday night, Dec. 10, with Mrs. Chas. Barker, Vice-President, presiding in the absence of Mrs. Thomas P. Baker, president, who has been ill.

Plans were discussed during the business meeting for the Christmas party which will be held Saturday night at the Country Club of the Everglades in coordination with Beta Xi Chapter. Progress was made and ideas were presented by the members on ways and means projects for the spring months for the group.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Francis Cress, Jr., and Mrs. Neal DePamphilis presented the program. Mrs. Cress spoke on "Clothes for Madam" and Mrs. DePamphilis spoke on "Grooming." Members of the chapter were used as models for various types of outfits, coiffures, and hobbies. The program was well received with much meritment, and audience participation.

Mrs. Lona Amerine was co-hostess with Mrs. Ouellette and served holiday nut and date cake topped with whipped cream and coffee. A cleverly made snowman of popcorn and raikish hat lent the Christmas theme to the serving table. Other members present were: Mrs. Bill Burke, Mrs. Bill Gruber, Mrs. Earl Lindrose, and Mrs. O. G. McWhorter. All were especially happy to greet Mrs. McWhorter, as this was her first meeting in eight months. She and Mrs. McWhorter left in the early spring to spend some time at their mountain home near Selva, North Carolina.

First Baptist To Have Carol Sing December 23

The Interim Minister of Music also announces a church-wide Carol Sing will be held at the First Baptist Church on Wednesday night, December 23rd, at 7:45 o'clock. In addition to the above mentioned choir, a choir consisting of children ages 9 through 13, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Richardson and accompanied by Miss Sherri Burgess, will lead the congregation in singing the lovely carols of Christmas. These annual musical events are highlights of the season for all citizens of Belle Glade.

High School Glee Club Sings At Advent Service

A unique Advent Service was conducted at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, on Wednesday evening at 8:00 p. m. The service was a narrative of the Christmas story, interspersed with hymn singing by the congregation and carols by the High School Girls' Glee Club. The narrative began with the First Gospel Promise in Genesis 3:15, and continued through the story of the wise men.

At applicable times throughout the service, the Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Janice Schwab, praised God with such carols as "O Come All Ye Faithful," "Silent Night," "Hark! The Herald Sing," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Angels We Have Heard On High," "Christmas Hymn," "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," "Shepherds Awake," and "Joy To The World."

Refreshments of coffee and hot chocolate were served, following the service, by the ladies of the church. St. Peter's Lutheran Church would like to express their thanks to Miss Schwab and the Glee Club for joining them in their worship to the Triune God, and for helping to make the Christmas and Advent season more meaningful.

Election Processes Need Improving

By Tom Adams
Secretary of State

Two important lessons have emerged from the problems and confusion that surrounded the primaries and General Election in various areas throughout the state this year.

First, there is a dire need for a general overhauling of Florida's election code.

Second, there is an equally urgent need for its uniform application and more effective administration throughout the state.

Proof of these needs was painfully evident in:

- Grand jury investigations and indictments in several counties.
- Election officials improperly instructing illiterates on how and for whom to vote.
- Improper procedures and use of absentee ballots.
- Splitting ballots with contested races on machines and uncontested candidates listed on supplementary paper ballots.
- Permitting a person of one party to vote in the primary of another party.
- Permitting persons who lost their civil rights through criminal conviction to vote.
- Permitting unauthorized persons to register electors.
- Permitting clerks to carry marked ballots into voting booths.
- Improper procedures and challenges by poll watchers.
- Apparent ineffectual training of poll workers.
- Unnecessary delays in the voting process.

While the conduct of elections is rightfully in the hands of local officials, I am deeply concerned, as the state's chief elections officer, about these hindrances which infringe upon the voting rights of all citizens and are determined to do whatever is possible to encourage corrective action.

17 Schools Enter Poster Contest "Cigarette Smoking & Health"

Seventeen county schools participated in the annual Poster Contest which is sponsored each year by the Palm Beach County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Grades 1 through 12 entered the contest.

Twenty-seven posters were displayed in the final judging which was held on Thursday, December 3, 1964, at Westward Junior High School, West Palm Beach.

All contestants worked with enthusiasm and many original ideas were depicted in keeping with the theme "CIGARETTE SMOKING AND HEALTH."

First prize awards were won by the following schools:

- Lake Shore Junior High School — Belle Glade.
- East Lake Junior High School — Pahokee.
- Roosevelt Elementary — West Palm Beach.
- Lincoln Elementary — Riviera Beach.
- Pleasant City Elementary — West Palm Beach.
- Roadman Elementary — Boca Raton.

Second prize awards were won by the following schools:

- Lake Shore Junior High School — Belle Glade.
- Lincoln Elementary — Riviera Beach.
- Okeechobee Elementary — Belle Glade.
- Northridge Elementary — Canal Point.
- Palmyra Elementary — West Palm Beach.
- Everglades Elementary — Pahokee.

This year's two prize awards were donated to the association, "THE S. M. MURRELL MEMORIAL TROPHY" donated by the Westward Junior High School faculty, and a plaque given by the Business and Professional Women of the Palm Beaches.

Judges were:

- Mrs. Annie L. Motley, Assistant Principal, Roosevelt High School.
- Mrs. Dorothy M. Peabody, member, Board of Directors, TB Assoc.
- Miss Dolores M. Sundwall, Nursing Field Supervisor, County Health Dept.

Want To Lose Weights Safely?

By Alma Warren

Want to have a streamlined figure and safeguard your health against diseases caused by overweight? Then eat Glades Vegetables!

The key to achieving and keeping a pleasing figure is to improve your eating habits, according to nutritionists with the Florida Agricultural Extension Service.

They stress that you can lose weight safely and comfortably without drugs or starvation methods.

It's those extras that you eat but don't need that put on those extra pounds. Reduce calories, but don't sacrifice essential nutrients, such as proteins, vitamins, and minerals.

To help resist the mid-morning snack, start the day with a well-balanced breakfast.

The American Dietetic Association lists several proposals for better menu planning:

- A pint of whole milk is acceptable for adults. A pint of skim or nonfat dry milk, however, may be substituted, since it contains only half as many calories as whole milk.
- Vegetables selected from the following group are especially low in caloric value: Asparagus, broccoli, carrots, green beans, kale, squash, spinach, turnip greens, lettuce, and other greens tomatoes, celery, cucumbers, beets, cabbage, eggplant, onions, rutabagas, cauliflower.
- Eat bananas, apples, grapes &

Post Office Predicts Christmas Mail Jump

Postmaster Nash reports that the Post Office Dept. is confidently predicting that the volume of mail during this year's Christmas rush will hit a record high. "Actually," she says, "it's an easy prediction because mail volume has been rising at a rate of nearly 3 percent a year for the past several years. This is most strongly reflected around the holiday season." With about 10 percent of the year's mail moving in less than three weeks.

The Belle Glade postmaster reports that public cooperation is one important reason that post offices around the country are able to handle this huge mountain of mail in such a short period.

"Without the assistance of the public, we'd be in a jam. People who shop early and get their cards and parcels into the mails early make it possible for the holiday mail to be delivered on time. Imagine what it would be like if we were to get all the holiday mails the last week before Christmas?"

Other sweetened fruit sparingly. Non-caloric sweetening agents and three teaspoons or less of fat or oil per day will also reduce calories. Use potatoes, bread, and cereals with discretion.

Apparent weight loss may take as much as one to one and one-half weeks, but after that, you may expect to lose one to one and one-half pounds weekly without endangering your health.

Nutritionists suggest writing to ADA for a free copy of its booklet, "The Best of Health to You." The address is: American Dietetic Association, 626 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 60611.

Finally, Postmaster Nash says that the use of the new Christmas stamps helps brighten up envelopes and packages. There are 20 postal employees working night and day in the Belle Glade Post Office to assure you a Merry Christmas. By following Postmaster Nash's advice, you can help them and yourself to a more relaxed and happier holiday.

The Opossum Is Loaded with Tricks to Stay Alive

By Jim Drews and Bob Bergen

It's eleven o'clock on a dark Florida night. You're driving with a friend across state on a long, flat, monotonous stretch of road, fighting to keep drooping eyelids from closing completely.

Suddenly you jerk upright. There in the beam of your headlights is an animal. It seems to wildered by the lights. It was over on the side of the road, but now it's walking back to the middle. You stand on the brakes, hoping you'll stop in time. Your passenger wakes up.

"Oh," he says, "Only a 'possum. Did you hit him?" And he goes back to sleep.

You drive on, after taking evasive action complicated by another change of direction on the part of the opossum, and wonder about this strange beast that blundered out of the swamp looking like a lost housecat.

The opossum is North America's only marsupial, or pouched mammal. He is noted for living prehensile, or grasping, tail—he can hang in the trees without using any feet at all; he plays dead if you catch him unaware; and coked with sweet potatoes he makes a meal that is the joy of the Florida cracker. The opossum, cornered by a meal-seeking adversary, may use several tricks to stay alive. His first reaction is to act fierce, snarling and spitting like the most ferocious beebat.

If this doesn't work, and it usually doesn't, he turns on his back, sticks out his tongue, and plays 'possum.

One knows why the opossum does this, but some authorities think he is just plain scared to death. His breathing is slowed to almost nothing, and he won't move, even if you prod him.

Just walk away and he'll leave. He may sprint for the nearest cover, or he may roll over, stretch, and saunter off without a backward glance.

Even though he is slow, lethargic and apparently slightly dim-witted, the opossum has been around for a long time, and is likely to be with us for some time yet to come. The reasons for his success in the animal world are numerous.

The opossum is an omnivorous eater. This means his diet isn't restricted to any one item, and he can and will eat almost anything! Frogs, eggs, young birds, berries, insects, even and in captivity, almost anything put in front of him.

Another survival factor is the opossum's nocturnal habits. Occasionally one will be seen out in the late afternoon of an overcast day, but mostly there is a night life.

Darkness is when his long whiskers are put to use. In the soulless gloom of a Florida forest, his eyes are almost useless, but his sense of smell and the whiskers protruding from his snout warn him just before he bumps into something. The whiskers on his forehead and cheeks give him an idea of the size of a hole he wants to crawl into in pitch darkness.

The opossum is a prolific creature, bearing from six to sixteen young each year. The babies are born blind, and tiny—a dozen would fit nicely in a tablespoon. Immediately after birth they climb into the mother's pouch, where they'll stay for the next eight weeks.

When they are old enough, the babies emerge from the pouch and shortly the 'possum is ambling through the woods, her long tail arched over her back supporting her offspring—which hang like pendulums by their tails.

The 'possum spends much of his time high in the branches of trees where his long claws help in climbing and his prehensile tail is perfect for hanging from a handy stem while eating or even sleeping.

One important feature in the 'possum's adaptation to a tree-top environment is the opposable toe on his hind feet. The value of a toe which is situated opposite the other four cannot be overestimated; without this, it would be impossible for the opossum to grasp anything firmly. He would be in the same fix as a man who lost his thumb.

But with his opposable toe, prehensile tail and garbage disposal appetite, the opossum rambles through life with few cares, and a good chance to outlive some of his neighbors—barring all traffic hazards.

Santa's Mailbag Filled With Requests

Santy O' Dad,
Like man, I want in the most wrest way a new pair of tennies
Like man, I'd be the last one to admit it, but it gets mighty cool here in Greenwich Village and my toes is stickin' out!
If you can arrange it get 'em dirty 'cause I'd feel queer wearing clean ones.
Maynard

Dear Santa,
I want an island with no
schools, my very own drag strip on it, and rail job.
Shark

Dear Santa,
Please send me a relaxation, a year's supply of Sucrily and a pink pair of bathroom scales.
Thank,
Lara

Dear Santy,
Please send me a skinnies and a laugh that's more like a girl than a horse.
Januth

Dear Santa,
Please bring me the following: 1 fifth each - McCarthy's
Rum; Calvin Gin; Half a Haig
Stotch; Smirnoff Vodka; Bols
Creme de Mente. All 1 XKE
Jaguar, and a package of army men.
S. H.

Santa Dearest,
All I want is someone to love,
but I'd settle for a pair of black lace petti-pants, some lacy stockings, and a million gallons of gas.
Bev

Dear Santa,
Being that I was such a good boy, I want a real big Christmas. I want a big bag of money, a new black Chevy, a boat, and a jeep.
Bucky

Dear Santa Claus,
It has been brought to my attention that, during the past month, you have been over-hopping your sleigh, and have pointed it Ferrari racing red.
Due to these facts, it is agreed that you must undoubtedly have some connections with Enzo Ferrari. I realize that you probably promise him a real great Christmas present like a Cobra, or something and there is more than likely, an agreement for the exchange of some of his world renowned paint.
Since you and him, definitely, must have something going,
I was wondering if there would be any possibility of my receiving one of Enzo's little cars for Christmas.
I have been a pretty good boy
this past year, not counting traffic tickets, and I haven't pouted or cried at all.
I have treated all my friends fair and haven't called any names or made any naughty signs since the first of December.
I will appreciate your considering my past year's record and hope that I will find one of those little red Ferraris under my Christmas tree this year.
Thank you,
Brother Dan

Dear Santa,
I want a doll, Sid Jones,
Larry Brown, Steve Halbrook,
Mark Bush, Gary Mann, Ray
Sullivan, Bill Miller, John Handerson, Lane Creech, or
Albert Kruse will do fine!
Miss Lonely

LETTERS TO SANTA

Dear Santa,
I have been a very good boy
this year. I never get throv-

King dart board, a pin the tail on the L. B. J. game and a Hubert Humphrey muscle building set. Next I would like to have a J. Edgar Hoover detective game, and last but, not least an all white Ford Cobra with white gas and big whitewall tires.
Yours truly
Skipper

Dear Santa,
I am sure you are connected with the Ross Allen Reptile Institute, so I trust you'll fill this request. I want a complete nake skin hat band.

give my regards to Ross.

Dear Santa Claus,
I am sure you have a boyfriend. Do you think you could get us one for Christmas?
We know that real cute boys are a senior and one's a fresh-

Dear Santa,
You know how hard I've tried to be good this year. I've worked as hard as I can to help the students learn something about reading and writing, but Santa, there are still some who don't come to "get it".
Will you please fill my stocking with a brace-and-bit and a large supply of liquid knowledge so that I can be helpful to some heads and pour in knowledge?
Yours friend,
Mary A. Sieveson

Como nosotros nos hemos portado tan bien este año, ¿te gustaría darnos un poco de dinero? Nosotros queremos una máquina de un muñeco para que nos hagan compañía. Tam-bien queremos una bolsa para ir al viaje, por Cuba y si no te gusta, por Puerto Rico. Un abrazo,
Tambien nos gustaria un
perro policia. Si no te pesa
mucho, tambien quisiéramos un Cochair convertible del '65, azul, con aire acondicionado, y con las voladetas en el piso.
El año que viene nos vamos

Dear Santa,
I would dearly love a new camera just like Mr. Avrill's.
Some new tires for the "gray ghost," point enough to make it a "blue ghost," a "V8" with a 4-speed, rolled and pleated interior, carpeting for the floor, air conditioning, working heater or heater yet - Santy, a new "Ghost."
While you're at it, bring me a little package measuring 38-24-36 by about 57". Make her blond or brunette, blue-eyed or brown, but Santy, make her sweet.
Markuth.

Dear Santa,
I am a little boy of 17. I would like to ask you to bring

I would like if you could bring me a sister who likes basbol and have short hair and like to have peanut butter, 'or breakfast, and... Why don't you just bring me a brother - ok?
Thank Ye

Fourth "R" Of Education

From the beginning of our education we have been taught the three "R's" of education. They are reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic. We have a fourth "R" of education, reasoning.

This fourth "R" hasn't been emphasized as much as the other three "R's". Why do I say this? Let me explain myself.

Reasoning refers to science. From elementary school on up, science has not been emphasized as much as arithmetic, writing, and reading.

You will find in high schools that only biology is required for a person to graduate. Where in English, which includes reading and writing, is required.

Math, like English, is required in every day. It is required in every day. It is required in every day. It is required in every day.

Student Of The Week

The Bobcat page would like to pay tribute to Mary E. Freeman for her outstanding leadership, service, character, and scholastic average.

Mary, who is a native of Albany, New York, was born October 16, 1949. She has maintained a "B" average throughout her school life. She is an active member of the Lake Shore High School Band. She is reporter and activity sponsor of the Sophomore Class. She is a member of the Church of God and Christ.

Mary's ambition is to become a Big Sister. She has worked diligently in her science classes to attain her goal. She plans to attend Florida State University.

To this gifted and hard working person, we say "congratulations" on this road and you will surely have happiness and success in life.

Digestive Words

A pinch of common sense is often worth a bushel of learning. Doing nothing is the most tiresome job in the world because you can't quit and rest.

Senior & Junior Bobcats Tromp Gifford

The Lake Shore High School basketball squad took a duet from the Gifford High School Tigers of Gifford, Florida, December 7, 1964.

The Lake Shore High School's J. V. Bobcats defeated the Gifford High School's J. V. Tigers by a score of 39-12.

The Bobcats took the lead at the first of the game and held it throughout the entire game. The scoring in this game was led by James Jones and Milton C. Edwards who were responsible for eleven points each.

The second game of this duet came with the Senior Varsity Bobcats overthrowing the Senior Varsity Tigers, 59-44.

Seniors Aid Spirit

Around our school the spirit of the kids has awakened again, especially at our basketball games.

To help lead the team on to victory, the Seniors have introduced new yells for the entire Lake Shore Family.

The latest in the yells of spirit introduced by the seniors are:

1-3-3-4-5-6-7
1. All for the Bobcats are going to heaven.
When you get there we will tell how we gave those (visiting team)

2. Down in the Bobcats reservoir.
We got a team that's beat the nation.

3. When you're up-you're down.
When you're down-you're down.
When you mess with the Bobcats

4. We're from Lake Shore.
And we couldn't be prouder.
If you can't hear us.
We'll yell a little louder.

Notes

Honor Society:

The members of the Hazel M. St. Clair Chapter of the National Honor Society of Lake Shore High School held their first meeting of the year on December 8, 1964.

Miss Mills, the devoted sponsor of the Honor Society, was in charge of the meeting.

Members of the society met to make plans that will enable them to render service to the community. Members of the Honor Society are planning to give toys and fruit to the children in the hospital for Christmas.

Each member of the society was asked to write a paper on the services that he had rendered to the community since the last school term. Each member was also asked to bring a photo of himself to the next meeting to go into the "Honor Album."

The members of the Honor Society are selected on the basis of the following: Service; Leadership; Scholarship; and Character. To stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, to create enthusiasm for scholarship and to encourage the development of character in students of Lake Shore High School are the goals of the organization.

The members of the Honor Society are as follows:
Lamar Mullins - President
Eldred Monroe - Vice President

Mary A. Smith - Secretary

Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the concert.

Are You A Good Listener?

Listening is more than hearing just as reading is more than seeing. Listening and reading are the receiving end of language. Communication is a two-way affair. A radio requires transmitters and receivers. No radio receiver would be of value if sending stations were not transmitting. In communication there is likewise sending and receiving. Writing and speaking are the transmitters.

Why listen? This question introduces the first characteristic of good listening. We listen for different reasons, in different ways with different results. We sometimes listen for facts as a source of information.

In school we gain information by listening to the presentation of facts by students, teachers, and others who have discovered such facts.

There are two requirements that are necessary in order to prepare yourself to listen and retain. First, we must have a suitable environment making it possible to be attentive. Your surroundings need to be adequate.

The second requirement is adequate mental preparation for listening attentively. Your mind needs to be alert and receptive of information at hand, and divorced from other irrelevant subjects.

Good listening is an active, not a passive affair. Listening calls for understanding, but merely understanding is not enough. We must, from time to time, summarize in our own minds what we have heard and interpret it in the light of what we do.

The test of good listening is our successful use of the idea and information given. If the material we listen to is worth while, we should remember it and act upon it.

Listening is something that has to be practiced. The person who can hear a speech of lecture and retain its central thought and details has trained himself to listen well. The student who understands an assignment given orally without having the assignment repeated has learned to listen in order to follow directions.

Good listening habits can be attained as well as good reading habits. One important thing that makes this easy is having a desire to do so. If you want to be a good listener, why not practice?

Listening is a very important step in learning, because you gain part of your knowledge by listening. If you are a good listener, you have a very good chance of being a good learner. Be a good LISTENER!

Why do the flowers bloom?
They don't have to, you know.

Why is it without water?
Plants and animals would not grow.

Why did God create this earth.
On which we live today?
Why don't people realize...

That each has a great debt to pay?
Why is the world so confused?
Why should people suffer so much?

Why do things happen as they do?
Why the instant reflex to a touch?
Why must we have to die.

Knowing not when or where?
Why do we continue doing wrong?
When it is evident that God does care.

"Just For The Record"

Fire Prevention:
You know winter is here and everyone will be using heat. There are various types of heaters, kerosene, electric and gas.

The Bobcats are urging you to please be cautious when you are using these heaters. No matter how safe heaters are said to be, there are always some dangers found in the best of them.

The kerosene heater for instance, heats very quickly but is the most dangerous when using it. It must be kept clean at all times. Be sure that the kerosene doesn't spill and always adjust the burners so that the flame will never burn too high. Keep constant watch of heater left burning during the night. Do not leave your home for a long period of time with a kerosene heater burning.

Anything that is inflammable should be removed from the vicinity where the heater is placed.

The electric heater is said to be safer than all, but there is also danger in using it. An electric heater must also be kept clean. Be sure that wires and cords are not ragged. If the extension is overloaded, a fire may result.

When using a gas heater be sure that gas is not able to escape. Use the precaution when lighting the heater if it is the type that has to be lighted. Make sure that flammable objects are not kept around the gas.

The above suggestions of precautions might help you during a warm, pleasant, safe winter.

Mimi's Column

I notice that our custodian staff is getting some help with the upkeep of the plant. Remember girls and boys that Mimi isn't the only one watching you. Am I right Mrs. Grear, Mr. Walker and Mr. McCurdy?

Here I am to tell you a little about everything. I'm hip to the latest and I want to inform you.

Have you ever heard Mr. Johnny Williams talk about teenage life, using that way out expression, "What you gonna do tonight Johnny Baby?"

The second period Modern Family Living class is really on the ball preparing many wonderful dishes for the Christmas Holidays.

Have you noticed the air of sophistication about Lee Luther Glaze? Seems as if the senior boys have really gone wild over the latest style of pants that have come out (leather pants) they really look nice.

If you can't speak any foreign language at all I would advise you not to hold a conversation with Senior Pugh. He can speak English, but he seldom does.

Have you ever noticed the way Willie Benjamin reacts when he gets on the basketball court? He whoops and hollers like an Indian.

H. R. J., what's this I heard about you and L. G. T. Is this the way you thing?

Even Mr. Howard is getting hip to other things besides mathematics. Dig his expression, "Are you with that?"

You do want to be a good English student? Yes? Then why not visit English IV, with me. The First thing you'll probably hear is "You'll never march down the aisle, telling people I taught you English if you don't know any."

Goodbye for now, but not for keeps, see you again some time next week.

Tips To The Females

Young Ladies:

The holiday season is here again and that brings to mind the thought of exchanging gifts. For many years this question has come about, "What do you buy for a person that has everything?" Of course there is something that someone can always use but we find ourselves in this same complex situation each year. Consider your budget and set a-e-t-e-h-i-t.

Beginning with your own jewelry, let's take your mother and sister(s). Check to see just what they don't have or what they have been wanting most. If you cannot afford it result to something smaller, I'm sure they'll appreciate perfume, jewelry or something of this type.

Most fathers and brothers are two times as pleased so this should present much of a problem. If possible try to think of more than the "freaky, cuff-link Christmas" gift.

Now for that special someone. This all depends on his taste and how much you're willing to spend. Don't over-extend, for him. Don't over-extend, for him.

Granny Advises

Dear Granny,
There are two guys in my class who seem to be interested in me but I'm all mixed up. I don't really care for either of them. They tell me things that are unbelievable. Most of the time I think they are only kidding, but then again they can become quite convincing. How can I tell which one is really serious?

Two-Admirers
Dear Two Admirers,
If you don't care for either one, don't beat around the bush. Let them know the truth. If you happen to like one though, encourage him. He might start dating you.

Granny

Dear Granny,
Go steady with a boy that I feel really loves me. I love him also, but I feel tied down. When boys talk with me, I'd like to talk with them on the same basis but I'm afraid he'll find out. I wouldn't want to hurt him, because he really loves me. I do want to be free with other boys though.

Tied Down
Dear Tied Down,
The reason you feel tied down is because you started dating only one boy too early in life. How do you know you love him? Perhaps the two of you should only date occasionally. This will allow time for the freedom with other fellows that you desire.

Granny

Dear Tied Down,
If you aren't too serious, it is not absolutely necessary that you buy a gift for a guy and it would be wise to get the opinion of your mother before exchanging gifts. If it is agreed upon that you may exchange gifts don't get too personal. This gift won't win his heart if that's what you're after. Teenage girls, especially those who attend school should not go too deeply into this matter, it may take you farther than you intend.

Probably there are friends and relatives that you'd like to remember. If so, observe the following. Never be offensive by buying a gift that you know the receiver won't like. Select what you think is right. Don't always expect something in return and never boast or brag about the differences in value, quantity or cost. Remember it's not what you're buying but the spirit in which you give it.

Our Latin Neighbors' Column

TO ALL OUR DEAR CUBAN COLONY here in Belle Glade, and to all our neighbors of Spanish tongue, we dedicate this column, with our best wishes for good health, peace and work, and lots of happiness in this Christmas 1964. And a happy New Year.

In this Christmas season, we Latinos who are so united in our family ties, remember more than ever the friends and relatives that we have in Cuba, far from them in person, but not in thought.

Remembering first of all Christ our Lord, who was born in Christmas day for our redemption, our first news will be from our Parish St. Philip Benizi.

Our Parish priest Father Francis X. Fenech, native from the state of Malta, who very kindly in Sundays receives us always in the entrance of St. Philip Church, and talks with us in our language; and his Assistant Priest Father Orlando Espinosa, fellow citizen of ours who shares the sadness of exile, they direct us both spiritually — and very generously offer us the liturgy of Masses in the Parish — for the month of December:

Class will be individually planned.

After visiting the Church and the schools, we turn ourselves to downtown, to a little Grocery called LATIN GROCERY, its owners Mr. Pedro Rubiales and Mr. Ramiro Fernandez, attend it personally. This Grocery is a meeting place for the Cubans, who are able there to find all the necessities of life, work, community projects, politics and welfare of this large Latin colony. Men drink a cup of strong coffee and smoke their cigars, and find themselves in a homelike atmosphere talking and discussing every topic with quick Latin minds.

Little has been achieved by Latinos for their young colony up to now. Recently arrived from Cuba, everybody had to work hard, and start to make their homes from the very beginning — and although it has been hard, our spirits are high, and we hope it will not be long — at least not too long — until we might be able to have our own Country Club for the teen-agers to meet and dance, and make Sports, ride, play tennis and ladies can meet for play canasta, or pray their rosaries in the afternoon, sewing could be done and writing letters. It is also our dream to have a Spanish library, Museum of culture and art, and a Gentlemen's Club, where the men could meet nicely, for a game of cards, dominoes, reading and discussing their ideas on the welfare of the Latin-American community.

At Sullivan's Pharmacy, we want to congratulate Mr. Wooten, for the friendly atmosphere that we always find in his drug store, where sometimes we Latinos go for refreshment or a quick lunch. Speaking with Mr. Wooten, he offers us his comment: "We are always most happy to meet these people who we received news of two accidents in our Latin Colony. Mr. Mario Ullivari, Chief Engineer, who suffered an automobile accident when leaving the sugar mill — is now in St. Mary's Hospital, recuperating. And Mr. Juan Grandal, Assistant Chief of Fabrication of the Atlantic Sugar Mill, had accidentally some boiling water falling on him, and now is in the Belle Glade Hospital, recuperating too.

More people continue arriving from Cuba, through Mexico, three families have received with great joy their arrival. Mrs. Sara Molina's mother, Mrs. Rubiales' cousin, and Mrs. Sylvia Arzu's uncle, aunt.

The interest of the Latinos who speak only Spanish, we wish to tell you that you may contact Mr. Alvaro Sanchez, in the new B & B market, for the raffie of bicycle for the children, which will take place this Christmas. You have only to go and register their names.

We need a good bilingual secretary, who can take shorthand and typing in English and Spanish. Please call 996-6211.

All picturesque articles on Cuban customs will be welcome on this column.

Vamos ahora a nuestro HIGH SCHOOL — JUNIOR HIGH — y ELEMENTARY SCHOOL, orgullo de Belle Glade, donde hay un gran número de estudiantes latinos. Muchos de ellos están desahucados maravillosamente.

Mr. Herman L. Close, el Principal de JUNIOR HIGH, nos hace el comentario siguiente: "Nosotros no hemos sacado ningún porcentaje de los estudiantes matriculados de habla Española porque nosotros no los tratamos a ellos diferente que a los demás. Estos jóvenes son situados en el programa del colegio donde pueden recibir la mayor ayuda, y parecen ser aceptados bien por los estudiantes y los maestros."

Nosotros hacemos todo esfuerzo para hacerlos sentir en su casa (o en su patria) de manera que ellos puedan continuar su crecimiento y desarrollarse en buenos ciudadanos como hombres y mujeres."

Para la Escuela Elemental, el viernes 18 tomara lugar en el Colegio la celebración por Pascuas. Las Madres de Aula han tenido sus reuniones organizando la preparación de Arboles de Pascuas, decoraciones, refrescos y regalos para los niños. Cada clase planea su propio día de fiesta.

Also we plan to give in our next reports news of the Latin families of this zone, such as births, engagements, marriages and other good news for which publication, we'll be grateful if you will please call this number 996-6310.

Mrs. Fina Larrodero:
News from the Neighborhood: Belle Glade has a very healthy and abundant atmosphere — and just as it is good for raising fruits and vegetables — for the family raise abundance in children.

In this last two months here we have had three good news. Mrs. Juanita Weber, after her eight big boys has brought to the world her first little girl, and her husband, Mr. Alvaro Weber, with great happiness the arrival of Roberto, number six of their babies. Mrs. Alice Rodriguez Tabernilla, accompanied with joy her baby boy number seven. Congratulations to you all.

Scout Troop 601 Attends Camporee

The annual "Skill-O-Rama" Camporee was held this past weekend on the Arrieta Ranch, north of Fort Mayaca, and all members of the Gulf Stream Council, Glades District, were a boy Scouts.

beneficio de nuestra comunidad. Solo hay que decidir a concretar planes y empezar a trabajar. Cualquier sugerencia en este sentido sera bienvenida a esta columna.

También planeamos ir dando en nuestros próximos reportes noticias sobre las familias latinas de esta zona, tales como nacimientos, compromisos, matrimonios, demandas, buenas nuevas, para cuya resena agradecemos nos avisaran al Telefono 996-6310.

Poco ha sido alcanzado por Latinos para su joven colonia de Cuba hasta ahora. Recientemente llegados de Cuba, todos han tenido que trabajar duro, y comenzar a rehacer sus hogares desde el mismo principio. Y aunque ha sido duro, nuestros espíritus estan en alto, y esperamos que no pasara mucho tiempo — por lo menos no demasiado tiempo — para que podamos formar nuestro propio Country Club para que los teenagers se reúnan, bailen, jueguen deporte, monten a caballo, jueguen tenis y tengan un agradable lugar de reunión para después de horas de trabajo y de colegio. Y las señoras puedan reunirse para merendar, jugar canasta, rezar sus rosarios en la tarde, podrían coser y escribir cartas. También es nuestro deseo tener una Biblioteca en español, Museo de arte y cultura, y un Gentlemen's Club, donde los hombres puedan reunirse en ambiente agradable, para jugar a las cartas, domino, lectura y discusión de temas sobre el bienestar de la comunidad Latino-Americana.

En la Farmacia de Sullivan, queremos felicitar a Mr. Wooten por la atmósfera agradable que encontramos siempre en su drugstore, donde vamos a veces los Latinos para "refrescar" algún almuerzo rápido. Hablando con Mr. Wooten, nos ofrece su comentario: "Nos sentimos siempre muy felices de tratar con estas personas que han tenido tal sacudida de sus vidas normales y que se han acomodado ellos mismos tan bien a nuestro modo de vivir."

COATESVILLE, PA., RECORD: "Washington has had its hand in helping the farmer, the working man, the aged, the businessman and the poor. That help may have looked good at one point, but little by little each group — each individual — has lost a certain amount of his liberty. One example is the farmer who is 'policed' rigidly and cannot grow what and as he wants, even if the crop is for feed for his livestock. Another involving the aged or widows forced them to live on a specific amount of money. If one earns more than a specified amount, he loses his government benefits in proportion to the extra amount he earned."

LENNOX, S. D., INDEPENDENT: "The final figures are in and it's now clear that after three years and an expenditure of $2.5 billion, the Department of Agriculture's feed grain program, intended to cut production and reduce surplus, has backfired. The 1963 corn crop was the largest in history . . . The government managers of the farm economy used every conceivable interventionist scheme to cut production: higher price supports, increased subsidies, direct income payments, food stamps, multiple price certificates, and severe penalties for overplanting. So, what did the farmer do? He utilized all the improved techniques and new fertilizers that industry could supply him, and made his permitted acreage produce more."

$1,500 TO A STRANGER
 "If most of us were told that a stranger was coming to our homes once a year to collect more than $1,500 from each family, and that he proposed to spend it for what he considered to be our welfare, I am sure that some interesting confrontations would take place when he arrived. If he further proposed that we sign over to him rights to regulate and punish us, the interviews would become positively exciting."

That intriguing view comes from the head of one of our oil companies. And he was talking, of course, about the tax collector — $1,500 is about the amount a representative family earning $6,000 a year must contribute to the federal, state and local governments.

It is families in income brackets of modest size that pay most of the cost of government, simply because there are so many of them. And it is these families which have the most to gain from efficient, economical government — and the most to lose from wasteful, spend, spend and spend government.

Government business nowadays is everybody's business. The citizen who fails to take an active and intelligent interest in governmental affairs is asking that his wherewithal be dissipated — and, far more important, he is asking for the loss of more and more of his beleaguered liberties.

SYLACAUGA, ALA., NEWS: "Thomas Jefferson was quick to perceive that representative government couldn't endure in the absence of an informed electorate. I wrote in 1832 that the press was 'the best instrument for enlightening the mind of men'. His plain inference was that an enlightened electorate would know how to go about organizing an enlightened government . . . The function is unchanged since his time."

MONKEY BUSINESS

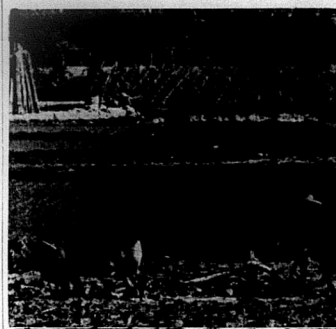

There are certain groups that want Washington to rule and regulate just about everything. This is worth restating now that an effort is underway to have the federal government regulate private pension plans which, so far as anyone can see, have been doing a fine job.

The excuse for federal regulation, of course, would be to protect the plans' members and beneficiaries. In the light of that, the government's experience with its own pension systems is significant.

The social security fund has been shrinking and at the same time more people are becoming eligible for larger benefits. This means that each new entrant at the age of 20 must put in $1.69 during his working lifetime for each dollar he may be entitled to draw, if he lives long enough to draw anything.

"The pension system for Federal employees happens to be about $35 billion in the red," says the National Association of Manufacturers, and " . . . the thing is in a mess." Substantial increases in contributions to the Railroad Retirement fund have . . . had to be instituted to keep it solvent."

These are examples of government running pension systems. It would seem that it has a lot of learning to do before it monkeys with the private plans.

The Orient Can Be Most Interesting

Two Belle Glade ladies, Ruth Wedgworth and Edith Freedland were privileged to make a tour of the Orient this summer, and their reports of places visited, things seen and their observations, we believe, are very interesting reading. We offer this report as of interest to free Americans — from a cross-range for the observations on the life of the Orientals and descriptive report.

HONG KONG

THAILAND (Formerly SIAM)

Edith Freedland
 Our flight from Hong Kong to Bangkok was on a beautiful new plane of the Thai Airline. On our way to our hotel we passed around Park with statues and figures depicting the four Freedoms—Thinking, Speaking, Writing and Religion. The Hotel Rama was full of Oriental atmosphere. Their brochure says of it, "Unequaled comfort, superb service, traditional Thai courtesy and hospitality" and this all proved true. The main dining-room was on the mezzanine floor with large colorful murals on the walls. One side was all glass, and we could watch the people swimming in the pool as we ate. There was also a Coffee Shop open all day long. Our Tour had a special supper in La Tropica where there was an orchestra and an attractive singer. The hotel was seven stories high, and had a Beauty Parlor and many shops inside. Our picture window had a good view of the city and it was good to see that the houses here had front yards with trees and flowers, and that buildings did not seem to be so crowded.

Thailand was formerly an absolute Monarchy, but since 1932 it is a constitutional Monarchy composed of Cabinet Ministers and headed by a Prime Minister. The present King is H. M. Bhumibol Adulyadej or King Rama 10th. Their Majesties have four children and are very active in civic affairs. Our guide tells the story of the King, dressed as a commoner, riding around the city on a bicycle. He was arrested, and the policeman demanded money, which was of course against the law. The national religion is Buddhism, and ninety three percent of the people are Buddhists. Young men, regardless of their social status, at the age of twenty spend a minimum of three months as Monks. They have their head shaved, wear a saffron robe, and carry a rice bowl in their hand. This moral and religious training reflects in their soft spoken, thoughtful manner, both in business and in the home. There are four hundred Temples in Bangkok, and we visited quite a number of them. At each Temple, we saw the Reclining Buddha, 150 feet long, and 50 feet high. It is made of brick and plaster and covered with gold leaf. The soles of the feet are inlaid with gold in all kinds of beautiful figures and pictures — one of the most beautiful things I have ever seen anywhere. Thailand has a population of twenty-seven million, and covers a space of two hundred square miles. It is only six feet above sea level. Thailand is west of Laos and Viet Nam, and north of Cambodia. So far they have been able to withstand all Communist aggression, which seems to be a record. It is a member of the United Nations and Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) which has its headquarters in Bangkok.

Buddhism started in India 2,500 years ago. Buddha is an Amas, not a God. The Monks are continually doing acts of merit, in this way they gain spiritual worth. They seek wisdom and understanding and feel that suffering is inevitable, and generosity is the most prized virtue. To achieve the state of Nirvana is the ultimate goal of all Monks. To obtain this, one must reach the plateau of freedom from emotions and desires. When a person dies, they are reborn for one hundred days. The coffin is closed and cousins and relatives come to pay tribute. Then the body is cremated and the ashes are buried under a Pagoda.

Perhaps the most famous Buddha is the solid gold Buddha weighing six tons, and worth six million dollars. It is six hundred and twenty five years old, and is 13 1/2 ft. by 7 1/2 ft. The Marble Temple is constructed of white Italian Marble and the yellow glazed tile roofs glitter in the sun like pure gold. Galleries around the courtyard hold a collection of fifty two Buddha images, most of them have the right hand extended in a gesture of peace. Everyone on the Tour was taking pictures of this wonderful temple. We visited the Royal Palace grounds and next to this was the Temple of the Emerald Buddha, with a magnificent Chapel.

The famous Emerald Buddha actually is made of dark green jade about twenty two inches high. This is the largest piece of jade in the world. Its costume, made of solid gold, changed three times a year with the seasons — hot, rainy and cool. The Emperor himself changes this costume by climbing up a ladder in back of the statue. There is an imposing Coronation Throne, and many Murals depicting the events in the life of Buddha. We did not enter the home of Princess Chumbi, but walked all thru the gardens and admired the pink, blue, and white water lilies. We all saw our first lotus in bloom. The blue and white blooms resemble a large rose bud. These are often used in decorations by turning back each petal and making a large flower resembling a carnation. There was a fabulous Lacquer Pavilion in the same courtyard. There were open pavilions used for entertaining. One had a long table sunken in the floor that would rise up when in use. There were murals in gold leaf, red, orange, and ivory tusks carved and used as vases.

UNCLE DAN from DOOLIE says:

Dear Mister Editor:

I see by the papers where silver was getting so scarce in this country that the next step was to pass a law for the U. S. Mint to make coins out of some other metal.

The Secretary of the Treasury has called on him to offer a plan by April 1 for the use of either stainless steel, copper, nickel, aluminum, or maybe zinc for making dimes, quarters and half dollars. He said his plan might call for using a mixture of several of them metals. He didn't say anything about going to wooden nickels and I reckon this was on account of lumber has got as high as silver and as hard to get.

The Secretary claimed the shortage of silver was on account of people hoarding coins. He allowed as how they were now more than 4 million coin collectors in the United States, and them that wasn't collecting was just leaving their coins lying around in their piggy-banks, cookie jars, on the mantelpiece or in dresser drawers.

In a manner of speaking, Mister Editor, I reckon you'd have to say our coin situation was on account of we got too much prosperity in this country. Back in the old days a fellow carried a snap-open purse in his pocket and if he had any coins he was using 'em every time he went to the store. But times was so good now that the young generation never saw a snap-open purse and folks was just throwing their loose change in a jar or sompin and coming to town with folding money. Afore we had all this prosperity they wasn't many folks that could afford to stash away coins someplace else.

We was discussing this item at the country store Saturday night and Clem Webster allowed as how prosperity was getting out of hand in this country. Fer instance, he was of the opinion we was going to have to come up with a substitute fer bread just as soon as we get our pocket change switched from silver to zinc. He reported he had saw in his latest pamphlet from the U. S. Department of Agriculture where the retail price of bread had jumped 51 per cent since 1950, from an average of 14.3 cents per pound to 21.6 cents and they was fixing to stabilize the price up another penny in 1965.

Furthermore, Clem claimed the price of bread didn't have nothing to do with what a farmer got fer his wheat. Counting the Government hand-out, he said he was getting about the same fer wheat under 14-cent bread as he was under the new prosperity price of 21.6 cents.

I reckon, Mister Editor, fer I'd live to see the day when we'd get too much prosperity but I reckon happy days was here.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Dan

Stuffing The Christmas Turkey

Miss Mary Todd, local Extension Home Economist, suggests you give your Christmas turkey a gourmet touch by trying a really different turkey stuffing. Add spices, fruits, nuts, meats, fish or cereals to the basic bread stuffing for interesting flavor and texture.

Allow three slices of bread for each pound of dressed poultry. Tear the bread into uniform pieces, using either fresh or day-old bread, before combining other ingredients. This helps all pieces to become evenly moist and seasoned. For best Fill the turkey cavity no more than $\frac{3}{4}$ full to allow for the swelling of the filling during the roasting time. Miss Todd does not recommend freezing prepared stuffings as stuffing becomes very wet and uninviting after thawing or roasting. She says for a delicious, different filling try this Cranberry Pineapple stuffing.

1/3 cup margarine
1/2 cup chopped celery
6 cups toasted 1/4-inch bread cubes
1/3 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

1½ cups fresh cranberries, chopped
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups drained pineapple tidbits
Melt butter in a small ski add celery and saute until tender. Set aside, combine toasted bread cubes, salt and nutmeg. Add cranberry pineapple sugar mixture and sauteed celery. Mix well. Yield: 7½ cups stuffing.

Bread stuffing varieties can be used with baked spareribs, in pork chops and as an accompaniment to meat course in place of a starchy vegetable.

SUGAR SUPPLIES ENERGY!Read Want Ads*Christmas In Bethlehem

Americans who dream of a white Christmas with Santa Claus popping down the chimney to the tune of "Jingle Bells" can thank assorted writers and poets and the northern climate, Christmas in the land of Christ's birth, however, is another matter.

What is Christmas like in Bethlehem?

The's generally no snow, for one thing, for winters are mild in the Judean Hills around Bethlehem, reports World Book Encyclopedia.

No Santa Claus listens to children's pleas, for he's an American invention based on a European saint. And there's probably no decorated Christmas tree in the village square; that custom originated in Germany.

Instead, the focal point of Christmas in Bethlehem is the Church of St. Mary of the Nativity, supposedly built over the spot where Jesus was born. Here pilgrims from all over the world gather on Christmas Eve. First there is carol-singing in the square facing the church. Then enter for the solemn midnight mass. After the service, an image of Christ is carried in a procession down into the grotto, and is placed in a manger where it lies until January 6, the Feast of the Epiphany.

After this ceremony, some may wander into the fields outside the town, where perhaps shepherds long ago heard the news of the birth of Christ. All this takes place, of course on the eve of December 25. But that's not the end of Christmas in Bethlehem. For the Eastern Orthodox churches celebrate the holiday on January 6, and the Armenians observe it on January 18, which is January 6 according to the old style, or Julian calendar.

International Center At Fla. State Fair

East may be East, and West may be West, but the two will meet in spectacular fashion at the International Center of the Florida State Fair, February 2-13, according to M. E. Tweddell, general manager of the famed exposition.

The unique facility promises to have all the charm of an Oriental bazaar, plus the style of a swank European emporium. Fairgoers will have an opportunity to marvel at such bizarre exhibits as gongs from Hong Kong, carved jade and inlaid furniture from China, motor cars from Japan, and a thousand and one other fascinating examples of the art and crafts indigenous to India and the Far East.

Western Culture and manufacturing know-how will be represented by many startling contrasts. Belgium will exhibit fine lace and firearms. Perfumes and motor scooters from Italy will be on display along with a multitude of alluring articles from France, Switzerland and Greece.

A visit to International Center at the Florida State Fair has been described as a trip around the world in 80 minutes.

Hippocrates recommended milk as a medicine five centuries before Christ.

Would you believe — The amazing think about MILK is that it is one thing that everyone in the world has consumed.

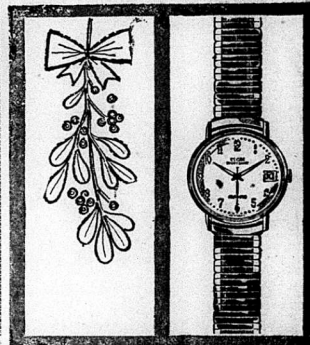

Nothing can bring you peace but yourself; nothing can bring you peace but the triumph of principles.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

SUPPORT Red Cross

Homer's description of goat milking in the cave of Polyphemus is evidence of the fact that man's use of milk began in prehistoric times and early developed into a home industry.
